Renewing and Recalling books online

To renew your library books online:

Go into Newton
Press 'Your account'.
Select 'Architecture and History of Art' from the drop-down menu.
Enter your barcode
Type in your last name.
Press 'Log in'.
Next to each book you have on loan there should be a box. Click on the boxes next to the books that you want to renew.
At the bottom there is a 'Renew items' button. Click on this to renew the selected titles.

To recall books which are out on loan from the Newton catalogue online:

Find the book that you would like to recall on Newton.
From that page click on Recalls and Requests at the top or bottom of the page.
Select Architecture and History of Art as the Home Library.
Enter your barcode (the 5 digit character code on your University card).
Enter your last name.
Click on login.
Select the Architecture and History of Art Recall from the dropdown menu.
Click on OK.
Enter your barcode (the 5 digit character code on your University card).
Click on Submit Request.

The person who has the book on loan will receive an e-mail telling them that it has been requested. When the book is returned to the Library you will receive an e-mail letting you know that it is ready for you to collect.
